Again mail from Henning Mittendorf in Frankfurt Germany. He sent me an envelope with some of his older works, but also a new colourful work that scanned and placed below. Henning is now soon turning 70 and that is quite an age. He has produced so many drawings and eraser carved stamps that is really a large collection. Last time Litsa and me met Henning and Angela was some years ago in Minden, Germany.

Above one of Hennings new works. First collage I have seen from him with these strong colours. I like it a lot. The themes are obviously from Henning.

Mail to Piet Franzen - Sidac Studio - Netherlands

Piet Franzen from SIDAC-Studio is doing a project where he sends boxes to participants in which they have to return 'their works'. I worked on my contribution and included it in the box you see below and above (below: outside, above: inside).

In the box I included lots of things that documents parts of my life. Will be difficult to exhibit this thing, but he has a lot now to work on.....

Mail from H.R. Fricker - Switzerland

A special made envelope by Hans-Ruedi Fricker arrived last week. The text reads: "Only senders can be Located". Hans-Ruedi always makes conceptual art out of his mailings and I was very glad that he sent me this surprise. Typical for "The aggressive Correspondence School".

After doing so much mail-art and conceptual art, the newest things he does is producing these word-signs people can order. Just have a look at <http://www.placeofplaces.com/>

I recognize the house H.R. Fricker lives in. Somewhere in Trogen, where there is now snow everywhere, He made this artistampsheet for me which will join the collection.
