Mail to Mick Boyle - USA

Since my last envelope didn't arrive I guess it was lost. It contained one of the Alphabet Booklets for my new project (see linklist or <http://alphabetbooklets.blogspot.com/>). This time I send Mick a new one. Hopefully it will arrive. The project runs slowly. So far 4 booklets have been sent back. About 25 have been sent out. More to follow as the project unfolds.

Slopjet and Hiplijko for Guido and Nico

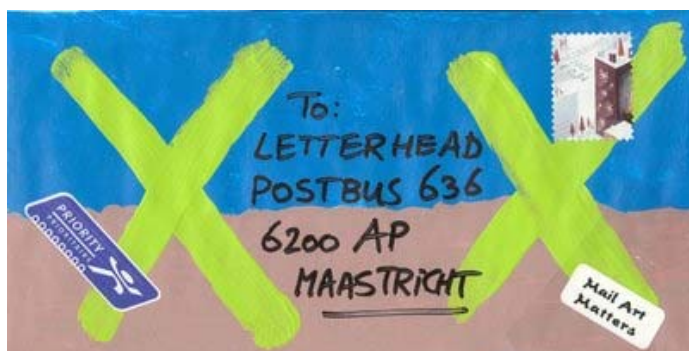

Two Fluxus Words on envelopes for Nico van hoorn and Guido Utermark. Because of the postal rates inside the Netherlands in Christmas-times one can send 50 gram envelopes for as little as 34 cents. A real mail-artist takes advantage of such an offer.....

ans also mail-art project calls for children. They like mail-art too:

MAIL FOR CHILDREN OF THE WORLD

KIDS LOVE TO RECEIVE MAIL TOO! Mail a picture postcard that depicts the town where you live. Use pretty stamps, have your postmaster hand cancel the card so that your town's name is prominently displayed on the card too. Beautiful stamps and cards sent through the mail is an excellent way for children to learn about the exciting world in which we all live.

This child has expressed an interest in learning more about stamps & postmarks from around the world:

Remember: These are children, NO nudity, NO profanity, nor political subjects please. Thank You!
 If you write a message, keep it brief and encouraging.
If you like the concept of helping kids learn through stamps from around the globe, please pass this along to a friend.

JOIN THE INTERNATIONAL LOCAL POST TODAY

What is the International Local Post?
 The International Local Post is a community of people all around the world that like to have fun in many ways...

Operate Your Own Local Post Station -
 Play the age old game of Post Office, but to a scope that is global in nature. Children and parents (or grandparents) enjoy setting up and operating their own International Local Post Station. There's a Station Master (an adult leader) and Station Agents (kids under the age of 18). You'll prepare & send mail, design your own "postcard rules", learn about others and the world around you through stamps and the fun things that travel through the mail systems. And a whole lot more...

Creativity Use your imagination and creative talents to decorate outbound mail, create your own postcards and cover envelopes, stamp albums or scrapbooks. There are no limits!

Correspond Write notes and letters to exchange with others - across town or around the world. Use your favorite stamps on the mail you send. Receive stamps and postmarks when others correspond with you.

Collect Start your own collections of stamps, postcards, covers... you name it! You can exchange and collect local post stamps, too. Including stamps that you design! And, of course, you'll want to collect International Local Post stamps from headquarters, as well.

Learning & Having FUN!
 That's what the International Local Post is all about.
Fun for young & old, families, clubs, churches and Anyone!!

How Do I Join? Getting started in the International Local Post is EASY!! Simply go online to take the brief tour that gives you $3301.05203 details about all the fun you can have as an authorized I/LP Local Post Station. Learn about all the neat stuff that comes with either the Basic or Deluxe I/LP Startup Kits. Choose what is right for you and sign up while you're there.
(Or, there are NO Annual Dues to pay either. Only lots of fun, year after year.)

Mail from Cascadia Artpost - USA

Special One Artistamp sheet

A complete sheet of Artistamps on a special political theme. Very well designed and printed. A wonderful addition to the Artistamps Collection in the TAM-Archive.

Funny is that the artistamps on the envelope (see below) are nicely cancelled, but that the formal Postage of the USA isn't cancelled at all. Seems they decided what is the real thing for them, and saw that the cancellation was already done in a perfect way by Jack Latteman from Cascadia ArtPost (USA)

An old project issued again. The Fluxtype Artistamps Museum of Artpool. Can you find my portrait? This is over 12 years old already.

Galantai sent me a new set of printed artistamps inside a brochure of his large exhibition in the 90-ies at the Ernst Museum in Budapest Hungary.

Mail from Roy Arenella - NY - USA

Last friday this wonderful parcel arrived from Roy Arenella. It included the card below: "The Poets hat" with also a note in it. The note itself was placed inside a book where there is also a contribution written by Roy himself.

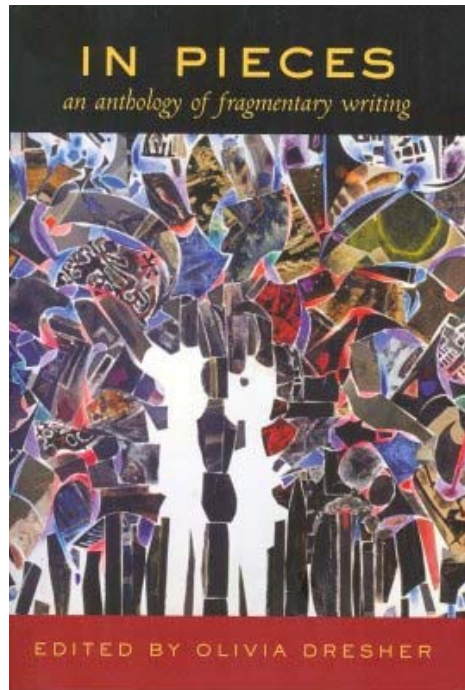

In the story by Roy he tells a bit more about the special Photocards he has been sending out in all those years. Seems the Interview I did with Roy years ago also caused him to write even more to explain what for wonderful art he is doing. For this interview see:

http://jas.faximum.com/library/tam/tam_079.htm

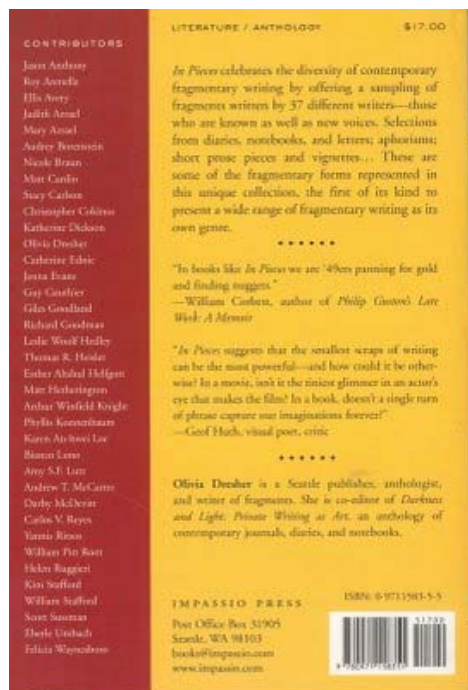

or see the book where the interview is also published in at:

<http://www.lulu.com/content/2354626>

A wonderful surprise and gift.

The book itself is edited by Olivia Dresher, See the details on the backcover below
