Besides this wonderful card Wilma Duguay also donated money to the IUOMA which will be used to send some of the publications on mail-art to museums and libraries. I am very honored with this support by Wilma Duguay which is also to honor her Mother who recently died. The things people do with a good heart is always such a pleasure to experience. Thanks again Wilma.

IUOMA Novel - The start

And so it begins in a land far away, three friends set out for a day of hunting. Jeremy who is a weasle of ~~peet~~ ^{re}find tastes strolled gracefully along the dusty track in his padded velvet smoking jacket he looked quite out of place amongst the thick dark forest they are trecking through.

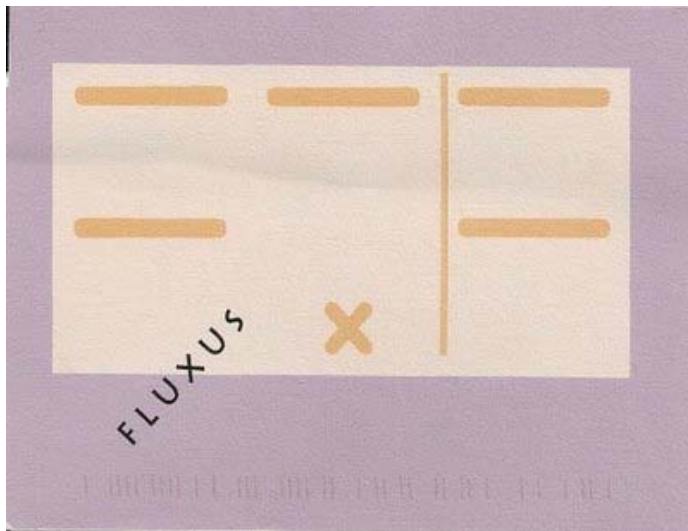

Jeremy likes to think of himself highly his clothes, the pipe he smokes made of the finest carved mahogany wood, the brandy he drinks, the fine quirsine he dines on, so to find himself in this odd situation is quite startling. What is more startling is how he arrived here in the first place for his two travelling companions hold a deep and darkly sinister secret that

Mail to Denis Charmot - France

Besides this card (received from Roland Halbritter - Germany with a free postage ride) Denis also will receive a special package which I didn't scan to keep the surprise alive.

Mail from Card-Zine - Canada

A new concept I hadn't seen before. A magazine that is formed as cards. When one puts them right (above) it is a complete illustration. But I liked the play with words and forms of how it got out of the envelope (below).
