Ongoing Interview Ruud Janssen

on <http://rjinterview.blogspot.com/> I published a new answer for an interview that is going on with Luciana Tamas from Roumenia, and used this illustration for the answer as well.

The website / blog "Ongoing Interview with Ruud Janssen" will be documented in a bookform as well. So if you ask questions there and the answers get posted, they will end up in a book I will publish probably next year.

Mail-Art ready for History?

Somehow the Mail-Art is being historified. If we want it or not. Mail-Art archives are sold or given to museums. Books about mail-art end up in museums. The postal rates go high and less mail-art is being sent out. Digital platforms take over the communication-function for the new generation. I addressed this point to in a lecture I gave in Rotterdam last year. I invested a lot of time for that lecture. The sheets I used there to explain my views are all published in the book available at: <http://www.lulu.com/content/5521047>. Or when you want it in colour that is possible too at: <http://www.lulu.com/content/5520212>.

New Interview - Blog

Again someone is interviewing me. Because it is not sure where the complete interviews end up I have a new strategy with interviews. The blog: <http://rjinterview.blogspot.com/> is used for that. Any question I get in is answered with a blogposting. That way others can read the questions and answers, but even can intervene with another question. The concept is also good because I can use hyperlinks and images with the answers. Just have a look.....
