Because the ZIPCODE was not complete the first envelope was returned to Gilles. The second attempt succeeded. Without the zipcode the letter should have arrived as well. Some postal workers aren't that friendly it seems.

Mail-Art Statements Collection

B&W Version of Statements

Collection on Mail-Art by Ruud Janssen. Reprint of statements written in period 1993-2008 on the subject of mail-art. These statements were first published as pamphlets. Later on the Internet, and now as a collection in one book. Some statements and texts were also published on the Internet first and later as print-out sent into the network. The last part of this book contains visual statements made when the Millennium came about and most recent is an overview of the slides used at a lecture at the Willem de Kooning Academy in Rotterdam explaining the concept of mail-art. In the past 28 years Ruud Janssen has intensively written about how E-mail and Internet would change mail-art, and it has.

Outgoing Mail

Yes, as you can see I've been quite busy this weekend. painted a lot of envelopes and they all go out this weekend. It was about time that some people got an answer. I know al people that send me mail expect an answer somehow, but I get in too much to keep up with answering the mail. It isn't that nice, I know, but there are only that few hours in each day.

Box from Luis Filipe Gomes - Portugal

This is the box that Luis Filipe Gomes from Portugal sent me. Inside it several items including a box with content and a special designed tile on top of it.

Luis Filipe Gomes included this booklet explaining the concept of the box. The tile in the box is a funny one. It deals with all the artforms and then places the new forms and Fluxus as last.

Thanks for this wonderful surprise Luis! It is very much appreciated.

In his booklet where he explains why he wants to give me this precious box he ends with a statement:

"Mail Art is not what you receive.
But what you intent to do from that.
Mail Art is not what you've send,
but the emotion you create in the people you've tried to reach."

very well said!

Mail from A McNeil - UK

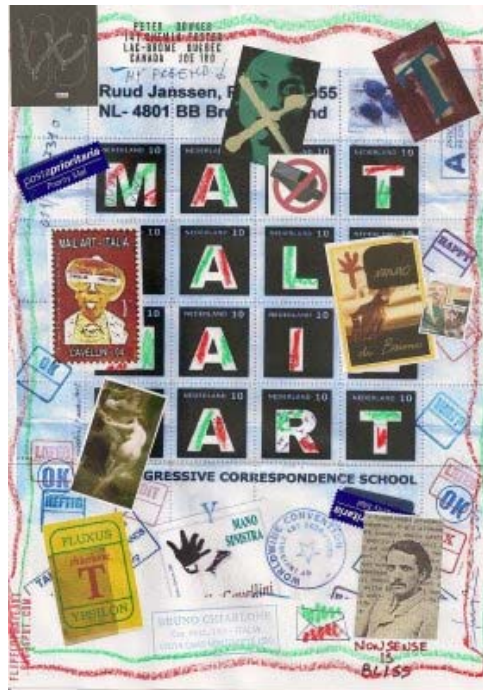

See: www.found-art.blogspot.com for details about this mailing. They probably didn't expect the Royal Mail to wrap it up in plastic this nicely.... This is Artist Book 87. Received on June 17th 2009 in Breda Netherlands.

Mail to Roland Halbritter arrived - Germany

On: <http://socks-stockings.blogspot.com/2009/06/arriving-mail-art-from-ruud-janssen.html> I read that Roland Halbritter received my mail-art. The last weeks I have been sending these colourful papers inside the mail. He arranges them into a little flame. Probably they are set up to be burned in honour of his new project. We will see what happens....

Mail from Torben Doose - France

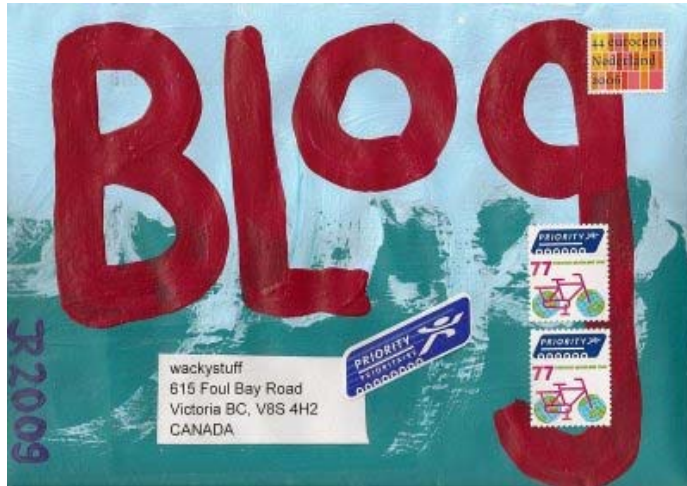

Torben Doose from France sent me one of his beautiful cards again. He writes that he believes the postal workers steal his cards because they don't appear on my blog. I just tested it by searching through the database of Blogger and discovered that there are now 5 pieces from Torben Doose on my Blog. So they seem to have arrived but Torben hasn't seen all the images. On this blog there are thousands of postings. Search for them in the search-box from blogger and discover the wealth of information. Thanks for this beautiful card again Torben!

Will this envelope have the risk of being burned? Roland is doing a funny project where he is burning the mail-art he is getting in and returns the ashes sealed in plastic.

Mail to Torma Cauli - Hungary

This envelope has a title that refers to the FACEBOOK environment where a lot of mail-artists these days are gathering. Sometimes they forget to send out the regular mail-art, or even worse: they don't have time for doing that because they sit behind the screen all day. That is why I am sending out some of my acrylic painted envelopes again.....
