View our website for details on these exhibitions and for ideas of related themes: www.richmondartgallery.org.

ATCs must be original artworks, and may be in a series, edition or multiple. Please "sign" the back of each card. All ATCs will be traded on the closing night of the exhibition. We will try to ensure fair trades for those not in attendance for the closing Trading Session: original works will be traded for originals, and digital works will be traded with other digital works.

To Enter: Send in 9 Artist Trading Cards in a standard 9-sleeve plastic sheet (9 cards per sheet).

Cards will be displayed in the plastic sheets. Cards must each measure 2 1/2" x 3 1/2" in order to qualify. All works received that follow this criteria will be exhibited.

Radical Fatshion (fat fashion) zine project? I am looking for anyone interested in submitting writing or easy-to-reproduce visual art/comics.

Here are some topics that I specifically would be happy to see in the zine:

-Commentary on/tearing apart the mainstream plus size fashion industry

-Pretty pictures of our favorite cheap and chic and riotous and fabulous fatshions

-Fat/plus-size diy projects

-Reviews and shout outs of products/shops/blogs that we love

-A collage

-FAT PAPERDOLLS!!!!!!

-Other stuff like crossword puzzles, short comic strips, smut about fucking in the Torrid fitting room, whatever. AND OH YEAH, stores about our fat childhoods/pre-adolescent/teenage years.

-The experiences of folk who are a size 28+, POC, poor/working class, queer, trans, and/or diff-abled.

I am also looking for folk to help me brainstorm a name and make copies and staple things and make layouts and stuff. Volunteer! I also need an artist or two interested in creating cover art and graphics.

This project and its time line are still taking shape, but my goal is to have a finished first issue by September 10th, 2009! The deadline for submissions is August 30th. Please re-post and tell your friends.

This is going to be a wholly fat-positive/glorifying, trans-inclusive, anti-racist/poc centered, anti-class-ist, acknowledging our privilege type of shebang. And, of course, really fun and ferocious.
